Merty pending appeal. Cummins's case will undoubtedly be appealed, but unless he too gets a certificate of reasonable doubt he will have to go to prison while the appeal is being argued. On his trial, which began on October 17, his counsel noted several hundred exceptions to the rulings of the court The $100,000 which Cummus was convicted of stealing was part of a fund of $325,000 raised by the Van Norden Trust Company and the Nineteenth Ward Bank to protect stocks in the Nine teenth and Twetith Ward banks pledged with other institutions for loans made to Warner and Warner M. Van Norden. It was the contention of the prosecution Martin, Jr., president of the Nineteenth Ward Bank, that the money was to have been held in trust by the Carnegie Trust Company, although tummins was have charge of seeing that the sto were protected Cummins alleged that the money was a straight loan to him and to his associates and that agreed between him and Bradley Martin that Michael J. Lynam was to be custodian of the fund. It was Cummins's contention that the money was to be Trust Company and to help some of the Cummins companies, since the downfall dinner that the Congregational Club of any one meant disaster to the "uptown banks" as well Cummins also suggested that he was the victim of a Wail Street conspiracy which moved through Clark Williams and C. Mayor Seidel recently notified the City Council, which is controlled by the Socialists, that Tax Commissioner Schutz.

State Democratic chairman, had undertaxed the property of the rich and overtaxed that of the workingmen. Schutz immediately retorted that the Mayor and City Clerk had as members of the board of review, been derelict in their duty in not correcting these errors when they sat as the board of review with they sat as the board of review with him.

The Carney charges are to be a formal presentation of this allegation to the Council. There is no likelihood in view of the Socialist majority in the Council, that the charges can be pressed to a successful conclusion. The tax commissioner says that the Socialists, whose time cost the city $1,000,000 more in ses for 1912 than in the last year of the previous administration, are trying to make him the goat for the increased taxes, and that the Mayor and City Clerk knew of the errors which they charge new of the errors which they charge the roll when they sat in review of the Judge Swann sent out a circular letter to all the Judges asking them to attend a meeting after court yesterday in Judge Rosalsky's chambers. The meeting began at 1:30. It was over a little after Judge Foster, Judge O'Sullivan, Judge Swann, Judge Crain, Judge Rosalsky and Judge Mulqueen were there. Judge Malone is out of town. After the meet ing they had nothing to say. It was said that the chief subject of discussion was whether or not Part V. Continued, an extra part of the Court of General Sessions, should be kept open until there was some relief in the Tombs. Ordinarily Part V. Continued is in session in October but this year it was not.

All of the Judges except Judge Crain were late in taking their seats yesterday because they went to the funeral of John F. Carroll, at one time clerk of General Sessions. It was about 11 o'clock when Judge Rosalsky and Judge Foster entered court: at 12 Judge Swann convened his part, and at 3 in the afternoon Judge O'Sullivan appeared. When he took his seat at 10:50 Judge Foster directed Clerk Charles H. Hermann to enter in the minutes the fact that he was detained by the funeral by the funeral.
